

PROGRAMME INFORMATION

CODE	PROGRAMME/SPECIALIZATION	PROGRAMME INFO
SH25	BACHELOR OF INTERIOR DESIGN [HONOURS]	Interior Design is a creative design field involving design skills in particular to create quality and functional interior space of a building. Interior designers combine the power of creativity and building technology knowledge to design the interiors of various buildings such as commercial buildings, residential, office, institutional and other available space within a building. Therefore, this program promises an extensive career includes sectors involving the design of interior spaces and also includes a career in construction, furniture design, interior lighting, interior building materials, graphics and management as well as in architecture field.